APPLICATION FEES

- Final filing fee: $300
  - Non-refundable

PROCESSING YOUR APPLICATION

Staff will review the application in accordance to the development stage approval. After review, staff will prepare the development agreements and schedule the item for city council review.

- City council will:
  - Review final application for approval
  - Send it to the planning commission If major changes are needed
- Decisions are final

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

The city will not accept an application until everything is submitted. An incomplete application may delay scheduling the city council review. Your application is considered public. If the city receives a request, they will need to provide it.

All conditions from the concept and development stage approvals must be completed before final approval.

Staff recommends that you discuss your proposal with your neighbors before you submit it. This can help address any concerns they may have.

The applicant and property owner are responsible for paying any out-of-pocket expenses. This includes:

- Administrative, engineering, or legal expenses for processing your application
- Staff time for enforcing any conditions(s) of the approval

Before site grading or installing improvements, the applicant must get final approval.

Any major changes to approved final plans will require the applicant to reapply for the development and final stage approvals.
